

Tim McElligott

Owner

When I was finished with high school, I didn't know what I wanted to do. I did know I did not want to go to college. I've always loved working with my hands, so I asked my dad if I could work for him. The next day I started working at Rockbrook Floors. I've always enjoyed meeting people, and I especially enjoyed when I got done with a project, saying, I did that, and seeing the smiles on the customers' faces. Now as the owner, I still see those smiles, but I also enjoy the relationship I have with customers, and especially repeat customers. Our customers are a little different than most companies. It might be five or ten or fifteen years, we will do a project for them. But since I've been doing this for almost forty years now, I've enjoyed the process of addressing problems and fixing it for our customers.

Katie Novotny

Vice President of Commercial Accounts

I have been with Rockbrook Floors full-time for the past 26 years and currently serve as Vice President of Commercial Accounts. Throughout my career with the company, I have worn many hats and gained valuable experience in virtually every aspect of the business.

Early in my career, I specialized in selling commercial carpet to apartment communities and property management companies. As my responsibilities grew, I took on a leadership role heading up and managing Rockbrook Floors' commercial department, overseeing operations, customer relationships, project coordination, and business development.

In addition to leading the commercial division, I have assisted with daily accounting activities and helped in the showroom whenever needed, reflecting the hands-on approach that has always been part of our family business. My diverse experience has provided me with a strong understanding of sales, operations, customer service, and financial management within the flooring industry.

After more than two decades with Rockbrook Floors, I remain committed to building lasting client relationships, supporting our team, and contributing to the continued growth and success of the company.

In my personal time, I enjoy spending time with family and friends. I also appreciate relaxing with a good glass of wine to unwind and enjoy life's simple pleasures

Jacob “Jake” McElligott

Installer

My name is Jacob “Jake” McElligott, and I’m proud to represent the fourth generation and future ownership of Rockbrook Floors.

I started working summers during high school, earning extra money while learning the trade. After graduation, I knew I wanted to work with my hands and went straight to work full-time.

I enjoy traveling across Nebraska and Iowa, meeting new people, and taking on the unique challenges each job brings. The best part is seeing a customer’s reaction when their vision becomes a reality. Knowing I helped create that finished space is something I take great pride in.

Matt McElligott

Installer

I have been with Rockbrook Floors for over five years, learning and gaining on-the-job experience. I appreciate the level of professionalism and hospitality that comes with a small family-owned business. I really appreciate how every week I'm meeting new people, and no two jobs are truly ever the same. I love walking outdoors, camping, and really any sport activity. I am highly competitive, motivated, which helps me be vigilant in my work, and I hope to one day be in business with my brother, co-running Rockbrook Floors.

Suzee Brown

Office Manager and Designer

I started here nine years ago. I came here to work as the salesperson in the office. My role has changed significantly to Office Manager and Designer. I probably enjoy the customers and seeing the finished project the most. My relationship with customers—I think they feel like they're my best friends when I'm done with them. They call me even after the job is finished. I love design, gardening, and being creative.
